

Alex Newman Nationwide Speaking Tour in Full Swing

There is a reason our nation has veered so far off course and — no, it's not just the politicians — it's what has been transpiring in your children's public school classrooms. Many Americans have been deceived into believing that the government wants the best for your child. Yet, traditional education methods have been put on the backburner for a much bigger agenda: planting progressive ideals in classrooms, transforming American children into social activists, and molding them into United Nations' "global citizens."

The New American author, speaker, and teacher Alex Newman is on a mission to expose this threat to faith, family, and freedom, while also revealing solutions through a nationwide summer speaking tour.

The good news is Alex's 2019 summer tour is already off and running! He's successfully spoken in Georgia, South Carolina, and Virginia. His next stops are in Connecticut, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and soon in Kalispell, Montana!

The government schools are systematically indoctrinating and dumbing down children, turning them against their parents, against their families, against their churches, against our country, against the Founding Fathers of our country, against our Constitution and our freedoms, and our Republic will not survive too far into the future if we allow this to continue.

Be a part of the solution!

We encourage you to attend his speaking engagement
